Why I am Running

North Port has arrived at an important juncture in its evolution as a city, home to just over 60,000. What we choose now will determine our future for decades to come. Through my broad base of business, leadership and life experiences, I can help lead our community to a bright future in which we are all truly proud to live, work and play. I love North Port and I want it to reach its full potential. We can “Achieve Anything” with a balanced and thoughtful approach to decisions affecting our natural resources, our economy, and our quality of life.

A viable approach might look like this:

Toledo Blade, with its easy access to I-75, could be our economic hub. With the recently announced Sarasota County Technical Institute, this area could become a regional education hub with a focus on workforce development. The strategic location could also bring a medical hub with quick access from the surrounding area. And finally, its convenient access from Tampa to Naples could bring a regional entertainment district that helps establish North Port in the tourism market.

Tamiami Trail is a vibrant retail corridor that continues to grow with the success of the Cocoplum shopping center. Let’s add some community gathering spots along Tamiami Trail that encourage residents and visitors to enjoy our parks, such as Dallas White and Garden of the Five Senses, and our extensive Cocoplum Waterway.

Warm Mineral Springs is a jewel waiting to be polished and experienced. Building on its uniqueness, let’s encourage creative, out-of-the box thinking on how this rare asset can help establish North Port as a tourist destination.

West Villages is a concept calling for communities and activities that enhance the natural beauty of the area. Let’s encourage moving forward with the associated plans.

What makes North Port most special, is people like you. I really want to raise the quality of life and the level of pride for all of us. Please support me with your vote in the General Election on November 4, 2014.

Warm regards, Jacqueline
